Dress Guidelines

The first young lady to register her gown will be the one permitted to wear the dress.

To be certain your gown has not already been selected by another honoree, be sure to shop early and register the dress.

To register, contact the Senior Age Group chairperson listed below.

- Text or email the dress designer, style name and number for your dress AND pictures of YOU wearing the dress. The pictures (2) must include your face with full front view and a full back view of the dress (head to toe).
- After the Senior Age Group chairperson has confirmed with you that your dress has not been previously registered by another honoree AND meets the dress guidelines, mail or e-mail this completed form along with the pictures (2) of you wearing your dress to your Senior Age Group chairperson at the address listed below.
- If you select a ball gown from the Legacy Pre-Owned Ball Gown Look Book, you need to follow the steps above to have your dress approved and registered.

Ball Gowns with trains, high slits, tight fitting, low cut, cut outs, low backs or with colored embellishments will NOT be allowed. Alterations to dresses should be considered before you purchase. Trains MUST be removed (NO bustled trains), and all dresses should be hemmed to an appropriate length. If you have concerns about a dress, please text or e-mail the photos of the dress before purchasing.
